A Superfluous Jury

It is very authoritatively announced that the Government of the United States is about submitting the decision of the justice of the late war to twelve chance men in Richmond, Virginia. For what purpose this is to be done is not clear. If the twelve men decide that the Government has no right to wage war, what then? Will anybody's opinion be changed? In the former case, will those of us who supported the war regret our conduct, or feel that we connived at the murder of the brave men whom all true hearts will ever honor? In the latter case, will those who opposed the war acknowledge their prolonged and miserable mistake? The sole question which can engage the consideration of the twelve men is, whether Secession is a right reserved to the States by the Constitution? But can that question be more absolutely and finally decided than it has already been by the war?

The plea of Jefferson Davis precedes the question of treason. He would willingly agree that treason should be punished. But he would contend that he has not committed treason. "Treason against the United States, says the Constitution, shall consist only in levying war against them, or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort." But this is true only of a citizen of the United States. Davis argues that he was not a citizen. He contends that his sovereign State had withdrawn and had thereby relieved him from allegiance to the United States. Therefore, while he would not deny that he levied war, he would insist that he did so not as a citizen of the United States, but of a political community with which the United States were at war. Consequently he is an alien enemy, not a traitor.

Suppose however, that the twelve men decide that this plea is of no avail; that a State is not a sovereign, and cannot withdraw from the Union, and that the allegiance of every citizen is due to the national authority; yet, we ask again, what have they decided that the whole country has not already decided by the most tremendous ordeal? This decision certainly gains nothing in weight or solemnity by the approval of the twelve men. Mr. Alexander H. Stephens and his friends do not change their opinion. Certainly loyal men do not change theirs. In the estimation of the first, Jefferson Davis does not become a criminal even though hung upon a gallows; in the judgment of the last he is not a hero or a patriot though he go untouched. Upon what point, then, and to what purpose, are the twelve men summoned to decide?

It is to determine whether there is such a crime as treason? But the Constitution defines it, and there is no question. Is it to decide whether Davis is guilty of treason? But that question is already settled by the refusal of the country to admit the plea under which he levied war. Is it to make treason and traitors odious? But how can that be done by convicting and hanging Jefferson Davis when General Humphreys, of Mississippi, who is guilty of exactly the same offense, is elected Governor of Mississippi by his fellow traitors—all of whom are equally guilty with Davis—and who is pardoned by the President that he may exercise his office? The odium of treason in the person of Davis hanging upon the gibbet is entirely destroyed in the person of Humphreys sitting in the Governor's chair.

But suppose the twelve men differ, or agree that Davis is not guilty of treason. Is it worth while for the Government of the United States to have placed itself in such a ludicrously humiliating position? If the jury be packed, the trial is a farce. If it be free, there is the chance and the probability of this humiliation. Now, is there any conceivable advantage to be gained by the trial which can authorize the Government to take such a chance as this? If the accused be convicted he is not disgraced. His offense is political, and no reasoning can persuade men to regard political offenses as crimes. Does any man suppose that if convicted Davis would be hung? To hang him would be an error as huge as to try him. To-day he is a baffled conspirator, and practically the deadest of dead men. Hang him and he becomes a living power to sedition, and an eternal remorse to the country. Every reader of history condemns Charles I, until he mounts the scaffold; then he pities him. Did his father's scaffold frighten or deter James II.? We have subdued this vast rebellion by force of arms. The blood it shed has been avenged upon the same field by blood. Its argument, its objects, and the characters of those who caused and controlled it, are committed to the terrible justice of history and the conscience of mankind. Our present duty is not to hang those whom we did not shoot, but to secure ourselves by political measures against political perils.

Of course we speak of Davis merely as a political offender. If he be guilty of complicity with the horrible massacres at Andersonville and Salisbury and Belle Isle, or with the crowning crime of the assassination, humanity itself calls for his punishment. The evidence of this latter charge is in the hands of the Judiciary Committee of the House. Before the Richmond trial we hope that Committee will give the country a plain statement of the grounds upon which the President offered a reward for Davis' arrest as a conspirator in the assassination plot.—Harper's Weekly.

OREGON FOR THE UNION.—We have glorious news from Oregon. That State has gone for the Union by a handsome majority. A private dispatch from Portland announces that the Union County and State ticket was elected and that the Legislature was "all right." This ensures a Union United States Senator in place of Nesmith, whose term expires next year, and gives our friends control of the State for years to come. The result is all the more gratifying because fears were entertained that the unfortunate quarrel between Congress and the Executive would enable the enemy to ride into power.

The Copperheads made a determined fight. Having nothing to lose and everything to gain, they played a bold hand. But like gamesters who have become reckless by ill-fortune, their zeal outran their cunning. They overdid their protestations of loyalty, shouted hosannas to the Union out of tune and out of time, betrayed a frantic solicitude for the welfare of the country, so illy in keeping with their past unpatriotic record, that the people were justly disgusted, and properly met them with a verdict of "want of confidence." They did their best to hide their shame of the past few years, but the "damned spot" would not "out." They were constantly and everywhere met by the witnesses of their guilt. In vain they tried to explain away their treasonable antecedents. They stared them in the face in spite of all their efforts to dodge or evade them. The Union journals were filled with "elegant extracts" from Copperhead speeches, editorials, resolves and manifestoes, saturated with disloyalty. The existence of treasonable organizations was proved beyond dispute, and it was charged home upon the Democratic leaders that not only were they in sympathy with traitors in the past, but were seeking to strike hands with them in the future. Never did men strive harder to get rid of an ugly record and never were men more justly rebuked. All honor to the Union loving people of Oregon for the verdict they have just rendered.—S. F. Bulletin.

REBELS AND STATE RIGHTS.—The Chicago Republican has the following:

The Richmond Examiner replies to some recent observations of ours by declaring that the rebels fought in defense of the invaded liberties of the citizen and the violated sovereignty of the State "against the violence of those who assumed to be the United States." In that war we are told the perfection of baseness was reached by those who deserted their States and joined their enemies. After this, what does the Examiner think of John C. Breckinridge, Samuel Cooper, Humphrey Marshall, Bradley Johnson, John C. Pemberton, Martin L. Smith, and other Confederate Generals who deserted their States and joined the enemies of the same? That paper adds that "No decent man ever did it or ever will." But perhaps it may revise this opinion upon consideration of its scope.

One of these days the inhabitants of the South will attain a wider and less provincial conception of political duties, and will understand that allegiance is due not to the township, the county, or the State, but to the nation. There have been signal illustrations of this genuine loyalty during the war, as for instance in the case of that noblest of Virginians, George H. Thomas, the hero of Mill Spring, Chickamauga and Nashville. That is the sort of character and action which will be cherished with pride in the Virginia that is to be.

DEMOCRATIC GAINS.—The Lyon County Sentinel says the Democratic organs have—doubtless by the same methods of computation that have so frequently given them majorities—claimed an increase of strength throughout the country, upon estimates at the recent elections at the East. At municipal elections in ten cities in New York, four in New Jersey, and one in Connecticut, the total Democratic majority was 1,013 in 64. In the same cities, the Democratic majority was 6,081—showing a Union gain of 4,068 in two years. Under this system of "revival" the party is in a satisfactory condition of "pater."—Marysville Appeal.

STATE ITEMS.

A new Steam Sash Factory has been started in Salem.

Company "B," Oregon Infantry, Capt. Williams, was mustered out at Salem on Tuesday.

It is estimated that the Umpqua valley will produce nearly six hundred thousand pounds of wool, as the clip of the present year.

The county authorities of Clackamas county are about to contract for the building of a bridge across the Molalla river near Gribble's prairie.

A Woolen Factory has been projected at Springfield, Lane county. This thriving little town already has a flouring mill, saw-mill and planing and other machinery in successful operations.

Operations in the Santiam mines are about to be resumed for the season. The Statesman notices the departure last Friday of a party owning in the Morning Star, Aurora, and the New York ledges.

We were last evening shown a telegram from L. B. Mecres, Salem, stating that a clean-up from fifteen tons of White Bull rock at Quartzville yielded three hundred dollars. Considering the comparatively small expense with which this mine can be worked, this yield is decidedly promising.

Last Wednesday evening, Henry E. Overbech, of Jacksonville, met with an accident which resulted in his death in a few hours. He was pushing a sulky with considerable speed when the vehicle came in contact with a post, the rebound causing one of the shafts to strike him with great force in the side, inflicting a mortal injury.

Preparations for celebrating the 4th of July, are becoming quite general. Washington county will celebrate at Centerville. We learn that the people of Salem have resolved to celebrate, and have secured the services of the Aurora Brass Band. A big, old fashioned turn-out is anticipated. Celebrations will be held at Dalles, Eugene City, Jacksonville, Oregon City, and numerous other places which we do not now recall.

Last Sunday morning Isaac Sternbach, of Albany, left his house to go to the barber's shop, as he said, since which time he has been missing. It is ascertained that instead of going to the barber's he walked immediately toward the lower end of town where he was last seen. He had been for several days very unwell, and the general opinion is that his mind becoming unusually depressed, he either purposely or through carelessness, walked off the bank into the river. Constant search has as yet failed to discover any traces of him.

The Proposed Amendment.

Some material errors occurred in the copy of the proposed Constitutional Amendment that was telegraphed us. We therefore republish it in full:

ARTICLE —, Section 1. All persons born in or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State where they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

SEC. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed; but whenever the right to vote at any election for Electors of President and Vice President, or for Representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers, or members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in the rebellion or other crimes, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

SEC. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress or Elector of President or Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or any State, who, having previously taken the oath as a member of Congress or officer of the United States, or as member of a State Legislature or executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemy. Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each house, remove such disability.

SEC. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including the debts incurred for payment of pensions and annuities for services in suppressing the rebellion, shall not be questioned; but neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of the insurrection against the United States, or any claim for loss by the emancipation of any slave. But all such debts and claims shall be held illegal and void.

PROSCRIPTION OF REBELS.—The proposition to exclude for four years from a voice in the Federal Government those who were guilty of attempting to overthrow the Government and disrupt the Union, is received with shrieks of horror by Copperheads generally. We do not favor the policy of disfranchisement simply because we deem general enfranchisement every way preferable; but it is a fact, abundantly established, that the rebels, had they succeeded, would have disfranchised the Southern Unionists, not temporarily, but for all time. This truth does not rest on such testimony as Governor Wise's alone. There is ample corroboration from various quarters. In February, 1863, the leading Confederates of Western Virginia issued from Richmond an address "To the people of Northwestern Virginia," urging them to take grounds for the Southern Confederacy. In this manifesto, they say:

> The North can never conquer the South. Neither will the South ever consent to the restoration of the Union. An inhuman attempt to subjugate a brave, free, enlightened and Christian people can never be forgiven or forgotten. The atrocities of the North in prosecuting this war and desperate attempt to invoke servile insurrection have placed a fiery gulf of hatred between the two countries. The separation which was forced by fanaticism has been confirmed by ferocious folly. It is not the South which will have to regret the consequences.
> As certainly as the atrocious scheme of subjugation is destined to fail, just so certainly will every inch of the soil of Virginia remain under her jurisdiction. The entire South will be conquered or all Virginia will be free. By solemn resolves the Confederate and State Governments stand pledged never to surrender any part of the State. They will be prompted by every motive of interest and honor to redeem the pledge at all hazards.
> We do not address ourselves to those who have eagerly engaged with the enemy to subjugate or dismember our venerable Commonwealth. They have chosen to abide the event of a war in which they have taken the part of traitors, and they must abide by it. * * * * * * *
> If you have not all acted with an equal firmness, we are gratified to believe (as we have many reasons for believing) that a large majority of the citizens of Northwestern Virginia have cherished a loyal attachment to the State, and that they abhor treason and traitors.
> We know how to make due allowance for the cruel necessities of your situation while some of us were able to retire to places where we could serve the cause of the South, and several thousand have joined our armies, it is just to remember that a whole community so great as ours could not withdraw into the interior; nor could they alone resist the powerful States on their borders. Many were hampered by poverty, or charged with the care of families, or detained at home by other obstacles which could not be overcome. Being compelled to remain, their submission could be enforced by arms. Mere submission to irresistible force will not be imputed to them as a crime. Voluntary and corrupt complicity with treason can never be excused by any circumstance.

This manifesto is signed by Charles W. Russell, Robert Johnston, Thomas S. Harmond, Gideon D. Camden, Joseph Johnson, William L. Jackson and ten other of the leading Confederates whose homes were in Western Virginia. It proves that, before Western Virginia would join the Confederacy her rulers exacted a secret but solemn treaty stipulation that no peace should ever be made with the Union that did not put loyal West Virginia under the feet and subject it to the vengeance of the pro-slavery traitors east of the mountains. It proves, moreover, that it was the settled rebel policy to disfranchise and punish all "voluntary" Unionists. The tables being turned, you see, they sing a very different tune in 1866 from that to which their pipes were pitched in 1863.—New York Tribune.

PASS HIM AROUND.—We learn that a man named J. F. Vinton, is traveling through the country and representing himself as a Special Postal Agent. In this way he has managed to get "dead headed" over steamboat and stage lines. We have good authority for saying that the fellow is an impostor. At last accounts he was traveling through the Boise country. Our friends of the press will pass his name around, and thus warn stage men and postmasters against the imposition.—Walla Walla Statesman.

The above item, with addendums, has been passing around freely, and we copy it for the purpose of pronouncing it false and unjust to a good man. We all know J. F. Vinton as a sterling temperance lecturer, and an able defender of the Union party and Union cause on the stump. We know that when Mr. Vinton passed through this city he had regular papers, and we do not believe him an impostor in any sense. It is the duty of the Union press to defend Mr. Vinton, and we hope this correction will be copied.—Marysville Appeal.

Dr. Bori, a French savan, having introduced to the public the new "science" of grafting rat's tails into each other, the New York News queries whether an application of the science to the United States would not be useful as a "reconstruction" experiment.

BRITISH IMPUDENCE.—When Gen. Meade was at Calais a few days ago Lieut. Gov. Gordon, of New Brunswick arrived at St. Stephens, just across the river, and sent word to General Meade, requesting his immediate attendance upon his Excellency. The General sent word in reply that he should be on board his steamer, the Regulator, from half past two to three. The Lieutenant Governor did not come, but sent General Doyle.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 21, 1866.

Debauchery of Public Sentiment.

It is something remarkable just now that nearly all the Copperhead press is speaking boldly and with a singular sort of defiance, against the trial of Jeff. Davis for treason. We have no need to go out of our own State to find apologists for his crimes and advocates of his release from confinement and from all legal responsibility. Why is this? Is it prompted by simple humanity? They had no such soft feeling for our brave countrymen who starved and rotted without burial in rebel prison-pens. We do not remember to have seen in any copperhead newspaper, or ever to have heard a Copperhead speak a single word of censure upon this conduct of the rebels, even during the heat of the war. We never saw any notice taken by them of rebel atrocities, except by way of palliation or justification. The very farthest we ever knew a Copperhead to go in condemnation of Jeff. Davis, was to say, "I am as much a Union man as anybody; I don't approve of Jeff. Davis' policy; the abolitionists and rebels are both wrong." We never knew a genuine Copperhead to go even so far as that, except under irresistible pressure. The crime of rebellion is never admitted without being coupled with a counter charge against abolitionists—as though a Copperhead were conscious of admitting something of criminal sympathy with rebellion, when he admits the wrong of it, unless he, in the same breath, also, implicate somebody else as the procuring cause of the rebellion. It is notorious that no Copperhead will admit that the rebels were quite as wrong as somebody else.

Not long since the Herald of this city made a defense of the rebels, inquiring what wrong they had been guilty of, if they acted conscientiously. It does not choose to judge them, but to leave that matter between them and their God. The aggregate of Coperhead writing and talking is substantially made up, now, of that sort of sentiment. Rebellion is to be judged of as a matter of conscience, the rebel himself to be the judge whether he is doing wrong. If he believes himself right, Copperhead says he is right and to seek to punish him is persecution for conscience sake. The legal right or wrong of the act, the moral sense of the world and the injuries of the rest of the people, are totally ignored.

This is very fairly, the ground upon which the Copperheads put the whole question of rebellion. Now, Jeff Davis and other rebels were wrong, in a moral and legal sense, or else the Government was wrong. If Jeff Davis violated law, he is guilty and ought to be punished, just as certainly as the man who murders. To put it as a matter of conscience is, in effect, to say that treason is not a punishable offense, but rather something commendable, because it is an act prompted by a conscientious sense of right, which is the index to Duty. Hereafter, then, if Copperhead morals shall prevail, treason and crime are to be ranked among the virtues in all cases where the perpetrator pleads his conscience.

We submit that if Jeff. Davis and other leading rebels are not to be tried and punished according to the terms of the law, that their clearance will do more to debauch the people's regard for law and loyalty than all the debauching influences which have sluiced their poison through the body politic since the organization of the Government. It will be a sort of official declaration to malcontents, that machinations against law, order and peace are no longer held punishable or reprehensible; and that whoever may desire the destruction of the Government, has license to go on with his devilltry, without danger.

It is impossible to conceive how a person may single out treason from the list of crimes, and elevate it to the level of a virtue, unless another may as justly single out assassination and place it on the same level; and so the debauching process may go on till there shall be no crimes left moral sense to condemn; until there shall be regard for matters of right and wrong, or for [illegible] or private decency.

We may be permitted to remind these Copperheads that only a few years ago they held to quite different views about rebellion, and then they thought it very important to adequately punish the dastard who raised his hand against law and constitutional authority. Do they remember John Brown? The plea of "conscience" availed him nothing, nor ought it. His crime was against law, and to the law he properly atoned. Let Jeff. Davis answer in the same way.

COPPERHEAD CONTRADICTIONS.—Democrats say they take the Constitution as the alpha and omega of their creed. When the rebel States seceded, many Democrats said they had a constitutional right to do so, while nearly all said there was no warrant in the constitution to restrain them from secession. According to all these, secession put an end to the compact and the seceding States were done with the Constitution. If that were so, by what Constitutional right do they or others for them, demand to be placed upon an equal footing with States which remained under the Constitution and faithful to the "compact?"

Again: they call the Congress a "Rump Congress," meaning that it is not a body authorized by the Constitution—because it was constituted by a fractional part of the United States. The President, however, is neither an unconstitutional Executive nor a "Rump?"—though he was elected by the votes of the same fraction represented by Congress. If Congress is a "Rump," why is not the President quite as much a "Rump?"

If the Southern States did not violate the constitution by the act or attempt to secede and thus to make a "Rump" of what remained, by what sort of logic can it be shown that the United States violates the constitution by remaining a "Rump," or by keeping the seceded States in a "Rump" condition until it chooses to do otherwise?

Have the Southern States an unlimited right to make all the loyal States a "Rump" and unmake them a "Rump" at pleasure?

But it may be said that those States had no right to secede. Then they committed a wrong. If they stand confessed criminals among the other States, having violated the constitution, by what right do they demand to be peers among the other States without conditions or guarantees?

WHAT HAS BECOME OF THE GOLD WATCHES? A New York paper notices the singular disappearance of gold watches through the country since the Government levied taxes upon them. It appears that there are now left in the country no more than 7,390 of these watches, and that some States have not a single specimen! Vermont has only two; Michigan has but one; Connecticut and Rhode Island have not a single one of any kind. There can be no doubt that there are more gold watches in the Pacific States alone, than have been returned from all the States and Territories.

Democrats have a wonderful penchant for riding two horses. One of the most remarkable rides during the rebellion, was the famous two-horse act performed by McClellan, which, by the way, was something of a failure. Just now, it is a little uncertain whether they are riding Jeff. Davis or Andrew Johnson—they are trying to ride both.

The President has announced that he will remove every Federal office-holder who does not support his policy. The Copperheads will endorse that as eminently a "constitutional effort"—especially if Copperheads are to get the vacant places.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JUNE 18.

Excitement in the Gold Market.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The Commercial's money article says that gold opened with a desperate effort on the part of the bulls. Specie payments this week will be merely nominal. There is every indication that we have almost reached the end of the specie drain. There have been days when the fluctuations in gold were wider, but they were not so frequent in a day, and the excitement was greater than any previous day in the history of the gold market. The transactions have been enormous.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The Evening Post's money article says the excitement in the gold market appears to have exhausted itself. The loan market is easy and prime commercial paper scarce. Stocks dull and steady. Government securities are steady.

The highest speculative prices of yesterday afternoon were not sustained, but there is a decided advance upon yesterday's first board.

Cotton is dull at 39 to 41½. Sales of the week [illegible] bales.

Flour, less active and lower.

Freights to Liverpool, dull and decidedly low.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—In the Senate the Pacific Railroad bill is under discussion authorizing the Union Pacific railroad, with the consent and approval of the Secretary of the Interior, to locate and construct their road from Omaha westward, following the most practicable route.

While the above question was pending the morning hour expired, and the special order, which was the bill to regulate the occupation of mineral lands, was taken up and discussed by Sherman of Ohio, Hendricks of Indiana, McDougall of California, and Stewart of Nevada.

On motion of Howard of Michigan, the House joint resolution requesting the President to transmit to the several States for ratification the amendment to the constitution, was taken up and passed.

In the House Ashley of Nevada introduced a bill granting the right of way and other privileges to aid the construction of a drainage and exploring tunnel for the Comstock lead; read twice and referred to the committee on mines and mining.

Bidwell of California introduced a bill to encourage the construction of a telegraph line between California and Idaho. Read twice and referred to the committee on public lands.

The Speaker stated that the Constitutional amendment was published officially by the Secretary of State this morning.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—In the House Price, of Iowa, from the Pacific Railroad Committee, reported the Senate bill granting aid for the construction of a railroad and telegraph from Folsom to Placerville with amendments, one of which reduces the right of way to 100 feet on each side of the track, another strikes out that part of the bill which permits the Company to select alternate miles. Considerable debate arose, which was participated in by Price, of Iowa, Higby, of California, Kasson, of Iowa, Hale, of New York, Pike, of Maine, Julian, of Indiana, and others, after which the House reconsidered the demand for the previous question, and on motion of Julian referred the bill and amendments to the Committee on Public Lands.

Foreign News.

FARTHER POINT, June 16.—The steamship Peruvian, from Liverpool June 7th, and Londonderry June 8th, has passed en route for Quebec. Consols closed on the 8th at 86@86¼ for money, five-twenties 64@64½. The bullion of the Bank of England had increased £1,400,000. The cotton sales of the week were 11,000 bales. The market was dull and closed with a decline of 1¼@1½ on the week. Sales to speculators reached 1,500 bales, and to exporters 9,500 bales. Breadstuffs firm, provisions quiet but steady.

The Prussian troops entered Holstein on the 7th of June. The Austrians were concentrating at Altona. These movements are regarded as the commencement of the war. In the British House of Commons the opposition had attempted a surprise on the government by moving the postponement of the franchise clause of the reform bill, but were defeated.

HALIFAX, June 18.—The steamer from Liverpool June 9th, via Queenstown June 10th, has arrived.

Consols closed on Saturday evening at 86¼@86⅜ for money, 5-20's at 65½@66.

The continental news continues warlike. Bismarck had issued an important circular, dated 4th of June, addressed to the Prussian representatives abroad. He says, "all our information agrees that a determination to make war is settled at Vienna. Not only was there manifested the utter absence of all readiness to enter into confidential negotiations and discuss the possibilities of agreement, but expressions of influential Austrian statesmen and counsellors of the Emperor have been reported to the King from authentic sources which leave no doubt that the Imperial ministry desire war at any price, partly in the hope of success in the field and partly to heal domestic difficulties, nay, even the Austrian finances by popular contributions or by honorable bankruptcy. The fact of war is settled by this determination at Vienna. The only further point is to choose a favorable time to begin."

The London Times says, such a dispatch as the above has not often been penned by an European minister. The Prussian States now think courtesy unnecessary in their communications with Austria. All the pride of the bitter hostility which has been necessarily repressed during the long negotiations may now be revealed. The dispatch breathes the spirit of war, and seems to have been written in anticipation of an immediate rupture.

The London Telegraph says, with this dispatch the last hope of peace has disappeared and hostilities become inevitable.

A Prussian division under Gen. Fliess, has crossed the Elder into Holstein. They are said to be ordered to occupy Rendsburg, Kiel and Frederichstadt. The Austrians were reported to be evacuating Kiel, and concentrating at Altona, where Gen. Goblentz and staff had established their headquarters on the 6th. They were peacefully met by the Austrian garrison, who evacuated the post on the same day. The parting was friendly. Gen. Goblentz issued a proclamation protesting against the Prussian occupation of Holstein. It is stated that he daily expects orders to attack the Prussians and use every effort to rout them. He has announced the transfer of the Government of the Duchy of Holstein to the city of Altona. It is reported that the Prussians would forcibly prevent an assembling on the estates of Holstein at Altona. The latest accounts say that the Emperor of Austria has ordered Goblentz to avoid an engagement. Goblentz is further ordered to retain the civil functionaries in power and delay the declaration of martial law. The Emperor claims that affairs now stand as they did previous to the Gastien convention. Fenian dispatches say that diplomatic relations between Austria and Prussia will cease the moment the Prussian delegation to the Diet leave Frankfort to return to Prussia.

The Crown Prince of Prussia has been appointed Governor of Liberia during the mobilization of the army. A Florence telegram says that Italy will commence hostilities as soon as war is opened by Prussia. A decree was issued in Florence on the 3d calling out for service the second categories of the classes of 1842, 1843 and 1844. Others will soon be called out.

The cholera is still continuing its ravages in Holland. Returns from Rotterdam state that out of 85 cases, 46 have proved fatal. The cholera has broken out in Nantes. There are from 16 to 20 cases daily, though there are few deaths.

The financial affairs in London are considered to be favorable. The bank report shows the receipt of unusually large consignments of gold from America. The strong anticipation of a decline in the rate of discount has given firmness to all kinds of funds. The rate of bank discount is ten per cent., but good private paper is taken for nine on the market. Measures are being taken for the re-establishment of the consolidated bank. The weekly report of the Bank of France shows the further increase of 30,000,000 francs in cash. The Bourse June 9th was quiet and steady; rentes 67 francs 90c.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—The eastern line is out of order beyond Laramie. No afternoon report.

Black and Taylor, with over three hundred of their pugilistic friends, left the city to-day for some point on the San Jose river to have a mill for five hundred dollars. No attempt made by the authorities to stop the party.

Margaret McCabe has been committed to the Stockton Asylum as insane. She imagines that enemies are endeavoring to take her life, and had recently attempted to starve herself.

Judge Dwinelle has granted Margaret Lucas a divorce from her husband, Daniel Lucas, on the ground of wilful desertion.

The Veteran Corps will be escorted by the National Guards on the 4th of July, and will carry, among other battle flags, that under which Col. Baker was killed at Ball's Bluff, which has been tendered by the Pioneers for the occasion.

Provisions—Sales of 20,000 lbs California smoked hams and bacon, private, and 100 cases California lard, private, quotable at 15½@17c.

Yeast Powders—Preston & Merrill's are quoted at $30 per gross—a decline of $2 from last quotations.

Freights—The Hamburg bark Joachim, Christian, 371 tons, has been chartered for Australia, if to Sydney 2 pounds, and if to Melbourne 2 pounds and 10 shillings.

Flour—Beyond the usual jobbing trade there is nothing of any importance doing.

Wheat—The market is dull and depressed. The range for ordinary to prime is $1,55@1,65, sales include 500 sacks good milling at $1,62½, and 620 sacks good shipping for export at $1,66 per 100 lbs., free on board.

Barley—Sales of 3,000 sacks brewing for export, private, Wauquato feed at 75@80c., and brewing at 85@87½c per 100 lbs.

Potatoes—New Mission are quotable at 90c @$1,00 per 100 lbs.

Dairy Products—Ranch butter sells at 35@37½c. Cheese, 12½@13c.

Eggs—37½c per dozen.

Wool—Sales for the week aggregate 107,000 lbs. Good shipping grades are quotable at 17@21½c., and burry at 11@12c, slightly burry is of course worth more, market dull.

Hides—Market unsettled.

Tallow—Market dull and lower, 6½@7c being fair quotations.

Gold Quotations—Legal Tenders

Authentic New York gold quotations to Monday, 18th: the market was exciting and the fluctuations wide. The market opened at 165, rose to 169 and fell back to 168. Legal tenders here are a turn higher, brokers paying 69½ and selling at 70½, at 70 regular, and 69@69¼. U. S. 7-30's are a shade firmer, with very small amounts available. For the June issue 72@73 is offered and 73½@74 asked.

Mining Shares.

The mining share market is dull and irregular. From last sales 19th, Hale & Norcross advanced $10, and from the mining board yesterday, Savage advanced $10. The following stocks have declined from the same board: Yellow Jacket $22 50, Belcher $15, Imperial $14, Ophir $7 50, Bullion $4 50, and Overman $2 50. Among the miscellaneous stocks sold were Pacific Insurance $1 79½@$1 80, and California Steam Navigation Company 51½@52, a decline on previous quotations.

Arrived, 19th—Steamer Pacific, two days from San Pedro. Sailed—Montana, for Portland; steamer Del Norte for Crescent City. June 20th—ship Harry Bluff, for Callao, bark Helen W. Almy, for Portland, bark Adelaide Cooper, from Puget Sound, brig Rayan, from Puget Sound; Oriflamme, for Portland.

HOW BEAUTIFUL!—So the visitors to ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL'S PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY, 69 First Street, say, who daily throng there to look at the elegant CARTES DE VISITE, SUN PEARLS, and other SPLENDID PICTURES. Like the Drummond Light, the work which comes from this establishment eclipses all others for beauty and brilliancy.

AN EXTENDED POPULARITY.—"BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES" have been before the public many years. Each year finds them in new localities in various parts of the world. The Troches are pronounced universally superior to all other articles used for similar purposes. For relieving Coughs, Colds, and Throat Diseases the Troches have been proved reliable.

MEETING OF THE COMMON COUNCIL.—The regular weekly meeting of the Common Council was held last evening at 7½ o'clock, Mayor Failing presiding.

The following members were present: Messrs. Gilmore, Lowensdale, McCraken, Rosenheim, Stra[illegible] Thoughtine and Watkins.

The records of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The action regarding the opening of Ninth and Tenth streets through the "out lot" block of P. Raleigh was deferred ten days, on petition of Messrs. J. Failing, W. S. Ladd, C. M. Carter and others, in order to allow parties to settle the matter privately.

The Street Commissioner was authorized to set an iron lamp post at the corner of First and Oak streets, and at the corner of Front and Pine streets.

Messrs. A. Cahn & Co., J. Kamm, J. C. Ainsworth and L. M. Starr, petitioned for a sewer on Pine street, and after some discussion the same was allowed, provided it was put down at the expense of petitioners, and in such manner as not to interfere with the improvements at present going on in that vicinity.

The improvement of Morrison street was accepted, in front of the property of the Ross estate, between First and Second streets, so far as related to the road-way, but the buildings being in the street the sidewalk was not accepted as a permanent improvement.

City Marshal Hoyt returned the tax roll of 1865, and made a report of sales for delinquent taxes, which was accepted and placed on file.

City Attorney Dolph tendered his resignation, which was laid on the table.

Messrs. R. Pittock, C. Ellis, Geo. V. James and others, property owners on B street, petitioned for the improvement of that street between Front and Second streets, by macadamizing, which was referred to the committee on streets and public property.

Warrants were ordered in payment of claims as follows: S. & D. Simmons, improvement of Madison street fronting block 167, $125; A. McNance, work on streets, $24, H. L. Pittock, advertising, $10; S. & D. Simmons, repairs to Front street, $3, C. H. Myers, setting four iron lamp posts, $187 22; J. H. Perry & Co., improvement of First street, fronting blocks 3, 14, 20 and 20, [illegible] less $588 drawn in favor of Ladd & Tilton for use of patent in laying 4,272 yards of Nicolson pavement, [illegible], plumbing and gas fitting at house of engine company No. 2, $17 70.

Several other bills were appropriately referred, including one of P. Burke for $5, charged for drawing, or moving, a dead cow from the city. The Council felt a disposition to disallow the bill, as some person must have owned the cow, and this person would have been the proper one to remove the nuisance occasioned by the death of the animal.

The resignation of Councilman Schuyler was taken from the table, and withdrawn. On motion, ninety days leave of absence was granted him, and on motion to reconsider the vote, was lost.

An ordinance fixing the names of streets in Couch's addition to the city of Portland from Front to Fourteenth street, and from A to U street, passed.

An ordinance changing the grade of Morrison street, at the intersection of Seventh street, to 52 feet above the base of grade, passed.

The City Surveyor was authorized to make an estimate of the cost of improving Salmon street, from First to Park street, in manner as proposed by notice of the improvement.

Council adjourned.

CIRCUIT COURT.—E. D. SHATTUCK, Judge.—Wednesday, June 20th. In the case of J. B. Price vs. Neoty Gray, judgment was rendered in favor of the plaintiff for possession to lot three in block 115 city of Portland, and for $200 damages for detention of the same......Barn vs. Sax, suit for recovery of obligation—judgment for plaintiff in the sum of $70 and costs of suit......A. Lusk & Co. vs. D. Farg-Aty. Tried by jury, and verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $223 25......The Grand Jury, by their Foreman, Mr. F. A. Clark, submitted the following report, and were discharged:

We, the Grand Jury for Multnomah county, respectfully submit to the Court that we have inquired into all [illegible] triable within the Court, that have been brought to our notice. Our session has been unusually long owing to the nature of the investigations it became our duty to make. We have inquired into a great many [illegible] and reported violations of law, and in doing [illegible] availed ourselves of all means placed within our power, to ascertain how far they were sustained by reliable testimony. Particularly is this true of the investigations we made into the charges of bribery and fraud alleged to have been committed at the late election. In pursuing our examination of these charges we summoned many [illegible] before us. The greater number of these witnesses disclaimed, and as we believe truly, any knowledge of the matters for which they had been called. The remainder, if they knew anything, were themselves guilty as receivers of bribes, and so well understood the penalty to which they were exposed, that no definite information could be elicited from them. We have found but eight [illegible] Of this number, one is for murder in the [illegible] charging three persons. Two for murder in the [illegible]. One as an accessory to a murder, one for an assault with intent to kill. Two for larceny, and one for perjury. We visited the jails and offices of the county and city, and report them in as good condition [illegible] will admit. We likewise visited the [illegible] Asylum. The condition of that Institution [illegible] cleanliness and good order through all its parts, [illegible]. A judicious construction of works [illegible] water to every part of the buildings, thus affording the utmost convenience to the inmates, as well as [illegible] means to extinguish fire in case of accident. From our observations we are satisfied that no effort is spared by the proprietors of the Asylum for the relief and comfort of the patients committed to their charge. We [illegible] freely and conversed with many of the unfortunate [illegible] therein confined, and found them comfortable and contented. The present condition of the Institution [illegible] as being creditable to the energy and [illegible] of the proprietors, and as being highly worthy of the confidence and support of the people and State. With this report our duties end, and we respectfully ask to be discharged.

PUBLIC MASONIC INSTALLATION.—Agreeable to announcement, the officers to serve the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons in Oregon, elected at the annual communication in this city on Tuesday last, were publicly [illegible] at Oro Fino Hall, yesterday. The ceremony was [illegible] by a large assemblage of people, and were conducted in accordance with the usages of this ancient and honorable order. Rev. Mr. Hyland delivered the oration, which gave an idea of the progress of Masonry in the [illegible] objects, and polity. He was listened to with great attention. The exercises were assisted by singing, by a choir of voices selected by Mr. J. B. Wyatt. The following are the officers installed: A. W. Ferguson, Grand Master; C. H. Lewis, Deputy Grand Master; Gustavus Rosa, Senior Grand Warden; D. G. Clark, Junior Grand Warden; George A. Edes, Grand Treasurer; J. E. [illegible], Grand Secretary; Rev. B. C. Lippincott, Grand [illegible]; Rev. Dr. Wythe, Grand Orator; B. F. Brown, Grand Marshal, J. R. Prindle and A. G. Walling, Grand [illegible]; Thomas D. Jackson, Senior Grand Deacon; J. [illegible] Albert, Junior Grand Deacon, Samuel Downs, Grand [illegible]. At the close of the installation the procession again [illegible], as it was marched to the hall, lead by the [illegible] Brass Band, and returned to the lodge room, [illegible] of Front and B streets. The officers elected at the annual convocation of the Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, were duly installed at the rooms of the order, and are as follows: George A. Edes, Grand High Priest, B. F. Brown, D. G. H. P.; A. W. Ferguson, G. K.; N. M. Millard, G. S.; John H. Couch, G. Treasurer; C. M. Cartwright, G. Secretary; John McCraken, G. C. H.; J. [illegible] Lee, G. P. S.; A. G. Walling, G. R. A. C.; B. C. Lippincott, G. C.

TRACT SOCIETY MEETING.—The annual meeting of the Oregon Tract Society was held yesterday afternoon at the Congregational Church in this city. The reports of the officers for the past year were very encouraging. The Oregon Tract Society is auxiliary to the American Tract Society of Boston, which celebrated its fifty-second anniversary on May 8th, last, at which time it was shown that the receipts of the Society for the previous twelve months were $30,000 more than during any previous year, amounting in all to $165,551 80. The total number of tracts and other similar publications printed, is 5,178,400, embracing 5,589,200 pages. This Society print and circulate the Freedman's Journal, of which 120,000 copies have been distributed. The Secretary stated that there were now 90,000 pupils in the freedmen's schools, seven hundred schools, and 1,300 teachers. For these [illegible] the Society have prepared a series of elementary school books.

RESIGNATION OF MR. DOLPH.—J. N. Dolph, Esq., who has acted as City Attorney for the past two years, tendered his resignation last evening at the meeting of the Board of Councilmen. This action will close the harping, "on one string" at least, regarding certain "family affairs," alluded to by our cotemporary. He has no particular aspirations in that direction. For the past services of Mr. Dolph we must say the city is greatly indebted. He has succeeded, during his term, in pretty well clearing the Circuit Court docket of litigation on city claims, codified the laws for the government of the city, and rendered much assistance to the Council that is valuable, and the pay he has received would no doubt be less than he could have obtained from the opposite side in suits in which the city was interested.

BIBLE SOCIETY MEETING.—The meeting of the Oregon Bible Society, at the M. E. Church yesterday forenoon, was very well attended. The report of the Treasurer, Mr. W. H. Corbett, showed that the Society was in excellent condition, having something between two thousand and three thousand dollars assets, with no liabilities. A committee was appointed to secure an incorporation of the Society in Oregon, under the laws of the State. A resolution was also adopted asking the parent Society to appoint an agent for the purpose of canvassing the State. In the evening Rev. Dr. Wythe of Salem addressed an audience at the church in a very earnest manner, calculated to fix the attention of his hearers to the importance of the topics discussed. There is more than usual interest attending the assembling of the auxiliary branches of the American Bible Society the present year—and the meeting in this city yesterday exhibited a determination to persevere in the good work.

THE WHITE HOUSE.—Mr. Williams is now better prepared than ever before to attend to the wants of his friends and patrons generally, who may feel a desire to take a trip over the Portland McAdamized road. Much care has been expended by the proprietor of the White House in preparing it as a summer retreat for those of our citizens, and strangers visiting the city, who have time to ride out. The house and grounds bear evidence of the taste displayed by Mr. Williams while at his table the taste of each individual guest corroborates the fact that the resort is in good hands. See the advertisement of Mr W. in another column.

THE STEAMER ORIZABA.—The Printer was not at fault in announcing the time of departure for the steamer Orizaba yesterday, but the copy was an error from which the advertisement was "set up." The steamer will leave to-morrow morning, at the hour mentioned in another column.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The usual number of drunks were disposed of yesterday before Recorder Hoffman, resulting in commitments for an aggregate of nine days. One person was honorably discharged, and another excused, it being his first offence.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—The proposed real estate sale of Mr. A. B. Richardson was yesterday postponed until Saturday next. See advertisement.

AUCTION SALE.—J. Loryea will hold another sale of new furniture this morning at 10 o'clock, at his rooms, Nos. 138 and 140 Front street.

Multnomah No. 2.—Drill this (Thursday) evening at 7½ o'clock. W. L. LEONARD, Sec'y

Five counties have not yet sent in official returns. Kelly's reported majorities in four of these are as follows: Baker, 60, Grant, 61, Union, 186, Umatilla, 247—in all, 554. Woods' majority in Coos county is reported to be 50. If these figures are correct, and without doubt they are nearly so, Woods is elected by 110 majority. The balance of the Union State ticket is elected by 250 to 300 majority.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of Impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in Bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

G. VENARD,

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

Kitty

Alas little Kitty—do give her your pity!
Had lived seven years and was never called pretty
Her hair was bright red and her eyes were dull blue
And her cheeks were so freckled
They looked like the speckled
White lilies which [illegible]
If her eyes had been black and she'd only had curls
She had been as she thought the most happy of girls

Her cousins around her they prattled and fretted
But they were all pretty and they were all petted
While poor little Kitty, though striving her best
To do her child's duty
Not sharing their beauty
Was always neglected and never caressed
All in vain she thought was the loving and true
While her hair was bright red and her eyes were dull blue

But one day alone 'mid the clover I [illegible] sitting
She heard a strange sound as of wings round her flitting;
A light net of sunbeams a fragrance more sweet
Than the winds blowing over
The red blossomed clover,
Made her thrill with delight from her head to her feet
And a voice, sweet and rare whispered low in the air,
"See that beautiful, beautiful child sitting there

Thrice blessed little Kitty! She almost looked pretty Beloved by the angels she needed no pity
O, juvenile charmers! with shoulders of snow,
Ruby lips, sunny tresses—
Forms made for caresses
There's one thing, my beauties! 'tis well you should know
Though the world is in love with bright eyes and soft hair,
It is only good children the angels call fair

The Reign of Terror in Tennessee

[From the New York Tribune, May 18th]

The following letter was sent to Gen Schenck at Washington, and forwarded to us with permission to publish it. We have Gen Schenck's authority for saying that it is from a perfectly trustworthy and truthful man, who is fully able to substantiate all he says. It is such statements as these that justify the sending a Congressional Committee to Tennessee, to which the Post, two days ago, so heedlessly objected. Persecution of the negro now at the South means hatred of emancipation, and a determination to set the laws of the Union at defiance, just as the negro riots in New York in the Summer of 1863 meant to aid the Southern rebellion. Federal troops were used in the one case, and Federal authority must be resorted to in the other to sustain the laws of the United States. The following letter is only additional evidence of that necessity

MEMPHIS, (Tenn ,) May 4 1866

My Dear General I have intended writing you ever since I came to Tennessee, but I have been expecting from day to day that the worst would come, and I could tell you all in one letter. I trust the worst has come. This city has been, during the last few days, the scene of the most inhuman and devilish outrages. A difficulty occurred between a few colored soldiers and the police of the city. It has grown into a most horrible riot. Every colored church and school house has been burned. Thousands of dollars worth of property has been destroyed, more than forty colored people have been shot in cold blood, women have been burned in their houses, women have been shot down while walking the street. The most fiendish outrages have been committed. Every man who wore a blue uniform or a black skin was in danger of his life, and he is to-day. I have no doubt that there is a secret organization backing up and sustaining this thing.

It has been necessary to send all the lady teachers North to prevent their being murdered. The United States flag is no protection unless encircled by United States bayonets.

Something must be done for this country, loyal men, black and white, must be protected. This country is no more fit to be admitted into the Union than Jeff. Davis is to be President. It behooves the radical men in Congress to stand by the right, and when it becomes necessary the men who fought the last war are ready to fight another.

I have seen eleven fires blazing at one time; I have seen women shot down, I have seen men murdered, and all this for no other reason and for no other offense than that they were loyal. If there is any power in the Government, let the loyal men of the land be protected.

One of our officers has been shot down in the streets of Grenada (Miss.) for no other reason than that he wore a blue uniform and was doing duty as an officer of the Government. Throughout this whole country such a spirit exists that a man cannot call his life his own and proclaim that he is a Union man. What I say, General, I will back up with incontestible proof, and will furnish the affidavits to establish every assertion.

I hope that this mockery will be ended—sending officers of the Government into this country to protect the people whom you have set free, without the power to enforce a $5,000 judgment. All rests with the men who constitute the majority of Congress. Such men as you need no backing up, and to those men who do I have only to say that they can count on the men who brought the country out of the last rebellion. They will stand by them, let come what may.

SPIRIT OF THE FOREIGN PRESS.—The Independance Belge of May 1st, reviewing the general state of affairs, has the following: "All that can be said at present is that if Austria has disappointed the anticipations of her best friends in spoiling her own position and bettering that of Prussia, France, on the other hand, has taken energetic steps to prevent an explosion, and has been joined in her efforts by England and Prussia. It is the result of this diplomatic action which we must await before we are enabled to pronounce a definite judgment on the situation."

The Opinion Nationale of the same date says "Never have the Austrians exhibited more patriotism than at the present moment. The manner in which the Cabinet of Berlin is driving for war with its recriminations and provocations, stimulates the most peaceful citizens, and of course increases the excitement of the army and the nobility."

In its number of May 2d, the same paper says, speaking of the same subject, goes on thus "While Prussia, Austria and Italy are threatening each other and monopolizing the attention of Europe, Russia continues her concentration of troops in the southwest provinces of the empire. This is an element of the situation which must not pass by unnoticed."

The Paris Constitutionnel of the same date says "Foreign journals, nay, even some of the French papers, are associating the name of France with all the rumors of war. These malevolent suppositions, thank God, neither agree with the truth of facts nor with the intentions of the real policy of the Imperial Government. The commercial freedom, the progress of industry, and above all the exhibition of 1867, could scarcely accommodate themselves with a war policy."

The Paris Pays, in an article on Austria, Prussia and Saxony, concludes in the following manner: "It will be the fate of Saxony to occupy the front seat in the coming performance, whether the two Great Powers decide in favor of reconciliation, or whether their armed legions exchange their first shots upon her territory. It is to be feared that, in spite of herself, Saxony may have to witness the latter performance."

The Reform of Hamburg says "The horizon of Prussia and Austria appear to be overhung with darkness for an unlimited period."

NITRO-GLYCERINE —The following is an interesting piece of information on the above subject, giving the means how to render it non explosive. At a meeting in New York, on the 24th of April, on the "Section in Engineering and Mechanical Science of the Association for the Advancement of Science and Art," Prof Seely called attention to the subject of nitro-glycerine oil, and characterized the action of certain members of Congress in reference to the sale and transportation of this oil as very amusing, and unworthy of statesmanship in this age. The same furore and panic had existed in reference to gun-cotton, and yet that had been transported all over the country by Adams' Express Company, and it had been manufactured and stored in buildings where there were hundreds of living beings and yet no accident occurred. Gun cotton was kept wet transported wet. Hence the safety. On one occasion an explosion took place on a steamboat on the Mississippi, which was caused from dry gun-cotton which had in it a little excess of acid. Had this excess been released before packing, there would have been no spontaneous combustion. This excess of acid was really, he believed the cause of the recent explosion of nitro glycerine at Panama and San Francisco. It would be easy to realize this excess of acid, as had been done with gun-cotton, and make the transportation, storage and handling of it safe beyond peradventure. He said that in a very short time our people would find out that nitro glycerine was a safer commodity of transport than gunpowder.

Mr. Bidwell has introduced a bill authorizing and directing the establishment of a semi monthly line of mail steamships between San Francisco and the Sandwich Islands, with a subsidy of not to exceed $100,000 per annum. This movement doubtless has the support of and probably is instigated by the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, whose large China steamers it is now said cannot enter the port of Honolulu, where, according to their contract, they are to touch. So far as that is concerned the difficulty could easily enough be got over by employing a steam tender to embark and disembark passengers, mails, etc , in the offing. The real difficulty in the case is that the Company do not desire to go by the way of the Sandwich Islands at all, satisfied as they are that it will not pay, and that their easiest and quickest route to Japan lies far north of the Hawaiian group.

REBEL NOTABLES IN MEXICO. The Diario del Imperio of the 18th of April, furnishes an official list of rebel celebrities who have settled down at Cordova on the land purchased by Magruder, Shelby, Price & Co, and the amount each has obtained:

At the present time [illegible] Magruder and Jubal Early [illegible]

A gentleman lately arrived from Zacatecas who has resided there since 1861 as a Texas Union refugee, informs me that as late as last August, Quantrill, under an assumed name, reached Zacatecas with eleven companions all being bound for the Pacific port of Mazatlan on a piratical excursion or nothing less than the intention to take passage [illegible] United States passenger steamer John L. Stephens [illegible] take possession of her on the voyage. This gentleman learned his intention and at once sent a messenger all the way to Mazatlan to apprise the agent there of the plan. Quantrill then came on to Mexico and passed here as George Brown. Since January last he has been down among the nest of martyr'd Confederates at Cordova. He appears to have plenty of funds and don't care about working hard.

PENSIONS.—A bill has just passed the United States Senate supplementary to the acts relating to pensions. It provides that twenty-five dollars per month shall be paid to persons who have been permanently injured in the military or naval service of the country, and incapacitated for labor in consequence, twenty dollars per month to those who are not obliged to have continual care and attention, and fifteen dollars per month to those who have lost a hand, arm or leg. The bill is especially stringent in regard to the transfer of pension claims, expressly forbidding the sale mortgage or other disposition of them to second parties. Among the provisions, the bill provides for the payment of pensions to a minor child or children of a widow entitled to a pension in case the latter shall be deemed unqualified by reason of immoral conduct to take care of such child or children. Widows of colored soldiers entitled to pensions are not required to furnish proof of marriage other than satisfactory information that the parties had habitually cohabited for two years together previous to the enlistment of the man. The pension system of the United States is a very liberal one, but there is such a vast amount of business now being transacted that it takes many months before claims can be investigated and pay allowed. We do not know that this delay is to be attributed to any fault in the Pension Bureau but it is very hard for poor widows and orphan children who are depending upon the back pay, bounty or pension of a deceased husband or father for support to be so long deprived of their just dues as they now are. If the labor is so great that the business cannot be more expeditiously disposed of, let more clerks be employed. At any rate, the privations and sufferings of the widows of those brave soldiers who have fallen on the field of battle for the benefit of the country should not be protracted by want of sufficient force to examine and decide upon their claims of the Government. –N. Y. Herald

GRAPE CULTURE IN SOUTHERN OREGON —It is a remarkable fact that the people of Southern Oregon, with not less than the usual thrift and enterprise, should not yet have turned their attention to this lucrative and important branch of agriculture. In various localities in this county, we notice with pleasure that many new orchards have been planted during the past spring, but do not hear of the planting of a single vine. Our farmers, and those owning small patches of ground, should take into consideration that the vine is best cultivated on soil, and in situations, that for orchards or cereals are worthless. Experience in the valley of Sonoma has shown that the heavy, rich bottom lands, so peculiarly adapted to grain culture, are but illy adapted to vine raising, and that their proper locality is the apparently barren hills where scarcely a blade of grass was to be found. The finest and most productive vineyard in the State of California, is on Wolfskill's ranch, and planted on a loose, barren, decomposed granite. We have hundreds of acres of just such soil in our county—hundreds of acres that are yet open to the occupation of the agriculturist. We have a climate extremely well suited to successful grape growing, and a good market in Northern Oregon and Idaho Territory for every gallon of wine that could possibly be manufactured in this county. It only requires the attention of our people to be turned in this direction, and we predict that the great success from this profitable branch of industry will soon more than compensate us for the annual depletion of our placer mines. We hope our German citizens, who are noted for their thrift, will take this subject into consideration, and invite immigration to occupy and improve the lands which are now lying waste in this portion of the State.—Sentinel.

THE CROWNING CALAMITY —The New York Times says:

The State of Virginia has failed in a good many things during its recent rebellion, but her failure to lose Henry A. Wise is the most calamitous of her distresses. If she had got rid of him the Old Dominion could have sustained all her other losses. She might have hoped to recover from the destruction of her industry, the demolition of her towns, the overthrow of her political prestige and power. But so long as the half crazy and wholly pestilent charlatan survives to take part in her public affairs, she can hope for nothing but contempt and damage, just as the extent to which his influence on them may make itself felt.

The Herald adds

When Wise was the captain of John Tyler's corporal guard, during the Tyler Administration, he was of some importance and possessed a little influence. He has lately been noticeable for a course of correspondence with Fernando Wood which at other times and in other nations might have endangered the necks of both. But Wise is now only the representative of the fag end of the rebellion, and as such is of no account whatever. He may rave and tear at will, but he is perfectly harmless.

INTERESTING ARMY STATISTICS.—A late dispatch from New York gives the following

When President Lincoln, in 1861, called for 75,000 men for three months service, the army of the United States had on its roll 14,000 men. During the ensuing four years, 2,108,532 left the army alive, and 184,340 died of disease. The number of white troops enlisted was about 2,500,000, the number of deaths among them was 281,222, or one death out of ten. The number of colored troops was 180,000, of whom 29,298 died, or about one out of six, being nearly double the rate of deaths among white troops. Of every eight deaths among white troops, three died on the field of battle and five from disease. Out of every nine deaths among the blacks, one died on the field of battle and eight from disease. The mortality among volunteers was nearly fifteen per cent greater than among regulars. These statistics are from official reports, but while they give the number of those who died in service, they make no mention of the hosts obliged to leave the service and who went home to die.

WADE HAMPTON'S LETTER.—The whole rebel press are out in denunciation of John Sherman Senator in Congress, for defending his brother against the recent insolent letter of the traitor, Wade Hampton, of South Carolina, on the subject of the burning of Columbia, in that State. This man Hampton belonged to the porcelain of the chivalry before the rebellion. As his treason is of the sublimated sort, his mere denial must be accepted in the American Senate as sufficient to annihilate the word of an illustrious soldier like General Sherman. We shall next have Jefferson Davis putting in his plea in support of "my policy," and in denunciation of his persecutors, and woe to the Senator who dares to take issue with the "store statesman."—Philadelphia Press.

The ironclad Monadnock has at last been floated into her "native element," as the penny a liners say, after three unsuccessful attempts. The way it was accomplished was by making several "camels" or air tight compartments, and placing them under her, and such was the buoyancy given to the ship that half an hour before high water she was being visibly lifted up and orders were immediately given to knock away the dog shores, when, to the delight and loud cheering of thousands, she really did glide gracefully into the water. She is to carry guns of an immense calibre and, although an ironclad is really a handsome specimen of naval architecture.

EFFECT OF MISSIONS IN THE SOUTH SEAS.—Savage Island was thus named by Captain Cook because of the barbarity of the inhabitants. A Baptist missionary Mr. Lawes went to the island a few years since. He reports that he found there a people prepared of the Lord, for, by the efforts of a native teacher left there, the people had been constrained to cast away all their idols and now in that Savage Island there was one thousand seventy church member. Above three hundred were admitted last year and over four hundred remain as candidates. And their contributions to the Missionary society for the year amounted to £124, and they raised, in addition, above £100 for books."

REBELS DISFRANCHISED.—A Nashville dispatch of May 19th says:

The Senate to-day passed the House bill to disqualify all rebels and traitors from holding office, or for military duty, after amending by striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting the following section: [illegible] who held civil or diplomatic offices, or were agents of the so called Confederate States, or who left judicial stations under the United States or State of Tennessee to aid in the rebellion, or who were military or naval officers of the so called Confederate States above the rank of Captain in the army or Lieutenant in the navy, or who left seats in the United States Congress, or seats in the legislature of the State of Tennessee to aid rebellion or who resigned commissions in the army or navy of the United States, and afterward gave voluntary aid to the rebellion or who absented themselves from the State of Tennessee to give such aid, or who held offices under States in insurrection against the United States with intent to aid the rebellion, or whoever held office in the State of Tennessee of legislative, judicial or executive character, under oath to support the Constitution of the State of Tennessee, and who violated said oath and gave voluntary aid or countenance to rebellion, shall each and all be excluded from all office by the provisions of this bill. As amended, it was [illegible] transmitted to the House, [illegible] a kind of supplement to the late Franchise law.

A WORD TO THE RABID REBELS.—John Minor Botts gently reminds the unreconstructed that if they should remain disfranchised for a season, they would only drink the chalice prepared by them for the lips of others. They howl vigorously for a large measure of magnanimity now. How did they act when they had the power? Mr. Botts answers

"In the month of July, 1861, the Convention of Virginia passed an ordinance declaring 'that any citizen of Virginia holding office under the Government of the United States after the 31st of July, 1861, should be forever banished from the State and be declared an alien enemy, and that any citizen of Virginia hereafter undertaking to represent the State of Virginia in the Congress of the United States, should in addition to the above penalties, be considered guilty of treason and his property be liable to confiscation.

Yet those who voted for and those who approved this measure of vindictive harshness towards those who declined to surrender their birthright as citizens of the freest and best Government on earth, or to make a voluntary relinquishment of their great inheritance of freedom, are now the most clamorous to represent the people in this same Congress of the United States and set up a universal howl of indignation, and implore the wrath of God and man on the heads of those who propose to give them a small dose of their own medicine."

Maj Gen Hitchcock, Commissary General of prisoners, has given notice that a sufficient length of time having elapsed for the presentation of claims against the fund under the charge of this office, moneys recovered from the rebel authorities, taken from the United States soldiers while held as prisoners of war, no claims presented after this date will be considered. A pro rata distribution of the fund will be made on the claims now on file, on satisfactory proof of the identity of the claimant and the authenticity of the claim being presented.

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus, CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs, brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Medical.

DR. CHAS. H. TOZER'S
PRIVATE MEDICAL INSTITUTE,
N. E. Cor. Jackson and Kearney Sts.,
SAN FRANCISCO

THE GREAT ERADICATOR OF SPECIAL COMPLAINTS, FORMERLY OF LOCKE HOSPITAL, LONDON, EIGHT YEARS IN SACRAMENTO, AND THE LAST THREE YEARS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

DR. TOZER'S

Experience is of forty years standing, and during that time has met with unparalleled success in the treatment of all those diseases generally known as Venereal or Chronic.

It is impossible here to mention all the diseases with which he is familiar, some, perhaps, will not be out of place. The most formidable, the most destructive to mankind is Self Abuse. The brain being the seat of the disease the whole system suffers in consequence. I will here enumerate some of the symptoms, so that those afflicted may be able to form an opinion in regard to their complaints, and seek advice in time, thereby saving themselves a world of suffering: Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory, Pain in the Limbs and Back, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling of the Limbs, Headache, and an Aversion to Genial Society, especially that of Females. There are a great many more, but these are sufficient, and should you be suffering from any of them, call on DR. TOZER, and he will cure you in a short time, without any interruption in your business—or state your case by letter and there will be no occasion for your calling at the office.

Stricture of the Urethra

Is another formidable enemy to health. Send for one of my circulars on that disease, and inform yourself of its terrible results. The worst cases cured in a few days.

Venereal Diseases

In all their various forms, either Primary, Secondary or Hereditary, completely eradicated from the system. Your constitution being restored to perfect health, there will be no danger of handing down to your children that terrible disease known as Scrofula.

Syphilitic Disease

As it presents itself on this coast, is of a more formidable character than that seen in the Atlantic States or Europe, arising from the fact of its being a compound of Spanish, Chinese and Sandwich Island disease. Those of you who have visited the two latter countries no doubt have seen the dreadful effects of it on both the native and foreign population. It requires altogether different modes of treatment.

The Old Formulas

Of Ricord, Acton and Bostwick are of little account, except to dry up the disease on the surface, leaving the poison in the blood, which, sooner or later, will show itself on a secondary disease in an aggravated form. These facts I have learned by experience, and I will say that I can say without boasting that I have seen more practice in these diseases than any other physician on the Pacific, dating as it does from 1842. It becomes you, therefore, to think well, before you employ a physician.

Who is the proper one to consult—an old experienced one or one who has recently settled among [illegible]

My Plan is Purely Vegetable,

Destroying the disease and purifying the blood, so that there is no danger of secondary symptoms.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia.

And diseases arising from the use of Mercury, such as pains in the shin bones, swelling of the different joints of the body, running sores, etc., etc., and impurities of the blood, cured in a short time by the use of [illegible] VEGETABLE MIXTURES, known only to myself.

Diseases Peculiar to Females,

Such as Retention, Painful Menstruation, etc., etc., have been my study for a great number of years, and I can safely promise a perfect cure in a short time.

Be not deterred from calling on Dr. TOZER from delicacy or a fear of exposure, as the Doctor is a man in whom you can trust, and all cases are treated with the utmost secrecy.

My Female Pills

Are the best ever used in this climate for the Suppression of the Monthly Sickness. Every lady should have a box, in case of necessity. Price, $5. Consultation, at the office or by letter, FREE. All letters returned or destroyed. Office hours from 9 A. M. till 8 P. M at Par(and have been since Dec 17, 1862, for the rent of my Handsome Brick

Store, corner of Morrison compelled to announce for the benefit of the public, that

JACOB MAYER
Leased the building of me Feb. 17, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue and it was understood the terms were Cash. Since the date above stated, I have received the depreciated currency regularly for the rent of the CITY OF PARIS STORE!
making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract and pay in Coin, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantages of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL much it costs to have
